

Andrew Britt

333 Vintage Ave | Winston-Salem, NC 27127 | andrewgbritt@gmail.com | 336.403.1571 | agbritt.com

Education

Wake Forest University, Winston-Salem, NC

BA in History (with Honors) and English (with Honors), Magna Cum Laude, May 2009

GPA: 3.76 of 4.0

Graylyn Scholarship (Full Merit-Based Scholarship)

GRE: 1430 Combined (720 Verbal, 710 Quantitative); 5.5 Analytical Writing

Honors

Phi Beta Kappa

Omicron Delta Kappa

Phi Alpha Theta, History Honors Society

Awards

Forrest W. Clonts Award for the Most Outstanding History Major, WFU History Department, 2009

W.J. Cash Award for Scholarship in Southern History (Awarded for History Honors Thesis), WFU History Department, 2009

Beulah Lassiter Raynor Scholarship for Achievement in English, WFU English Department, 2008

David H. Hadley Prize for Historical Writing on the Introductory Level, WFU History Department, 2006

Academic Experience and Research

President, Phi Alpha Theta, History Honors Society, 2008-9

Moderator, "Race and Gender in the Presidential Election," Phi Alpha Theta Panel, Fall 2008

History Scholar Finalist (One-Week History Student Fellowship in New York City), Gilder Lehrman Institute of American History, 2008

Presenter, WFU Undergraduate Research Symposium, 2007 and 2008

Intern, American Historical Association, Summer 2007

Research Grant Recipient, "A Walk with Martin: The Evolving Legacy of Martin Luther King, Jr.," WFU Scholarship Committee, Summer 2006

Writing

Author (Fiction), "La Verdad al Suelo," Reflejos (Romance Language Department Journal), Fall 2009

English Honors Thesis: "Shelley Frames A Portrait: Romanticism and Synecdoche in James Joyce," 2009

History Honors Thesis: "Creating the Moderate King: Social Values and Collective Memory in the United States Congress," 2008

Editor, English Department Newsletter, 2008

Assistant Editor, The Philomathesian, Student Academic Journal, 2007-8

Staff Writer and Assistant Editor, 3 to 4 Ounces, Student Art Journal, 2007-8

Co-Author, "Report on the National History Conference," Perspectives Magazine, September 2007

Contributing Writer, AHA Today (American Historical Association Blog), Summer 2007

Professional and Leadership Experience

Senior Admissions Counselor, Wake Forest University, Undergraduate Admissions, 2009-present

Founder and Head, NC give cycle, Service-Oriented Cycling Trip, 2009

President and Captain, Wake Forest Men's Lacrosse, 2008-9

Committee Director, Student Sustainability Initiative, Spring 2008

Campus Campaign Coordinator, Teach for America, 2007-8

Skills

Spanish Proficiency

HTML and CSS Proficiency